

Contact

arjun.baidyaray@gmail.com

www.linkedin.com/in/arjunbaidyaray (LinkedIn)

Top Skills

Team Management
Management
Energy

Languages

English (Native or Bilingual)
Hindi (Native or Bilingual)
Bengali (Native or Bilingual)

Certifications

Design Thinking for Innovation

Honors-Awards

Thermax Leadership Development
Program for Young Managers

Arjun Baidyaray

Senior Director, Corporate Planning & Strategy at Sutherland
Maharashtra

Summary

A seasoned leader with close to a decade's experience in driving strategic business initiatives across manufacturing and services industries, Arjun has played a critical role in establishing global revenue streams and substantially expanding his organisation's global footprint. He is a skilled negotiator and has formalised business partnerships with various stakeholders for setting up operations in new geographies and developing new business offerings in existing as well as emerging markets. He is currently leading an international team comprising of members from Europe, Africa, Latin America, Middle East and Far East for strategic projects taken up by the office of the Chief Commercial Office at the world's largest privately held Business Process Management Company

Experience

Sutherland

7 years 4 months

Senior Director, Corporate Planning and Strategy
February 2022 - Present (6 months)

Director Corporate Planning
September 2018 - April 2022 (3 years 8 months)
Strategic Planning

- o Responsible for conceptualising and implementing the Geo-expansion strategy of the organisation.
- o Led the team that set up operations in new locations within India, Asia Pacific and EMEA.
- o Identified scope for improvements in business processes and profitability of the company through application of Data Science and Analytics

Senior Manager, Global Initiatives
April 2015 - September 2018 (3 years 6 months)
maharashtra

Strategic Consulting and Organizational Growth

- o Conceptualising and implementing customised business models aimed at delivering the maximum social impact on the local communities in geographies the company expands into.
- o Negotiating grants and incentives with various government agencies and investment boards to increase the financial attractiveness of setting up operations in these new geographies.

Financial Analysis, Market Research and Business Development

- o Analysing the financial performance of the company and identifying loss-making processes/ sites/ geographies. Sharing these information with the Chief Commercial Officer to assist him in improving the company's profitability.
- o Conducting market research to understand the latest developments in the external business environment and identifying new growth areas for the business.
- o Identifying new business opportunities with new customers in existing or new geographies.

Stakeholder and Project Management

- o Formalising business partnerships and maintaining high-level relationships with various business partners such as Investment boards, Government Authorities and Educational Institutions to develop the capabilities required to deliver services in new markets.
- o Project Managing preparation of various domestic and international bids/ proposals for successfully claiming incentives and grants from various government institutions.

Team Building

- o Led and mentored a team of multinationals from Europe, Africa, Japan, China, Latin America and South East Asia, who worked on and delivered various top management led initiatives in the company

Thermax

Asst Manager, Sales & Marketing

August 2007 - April 2014 (6 years 9 months)

Pune Area, India

Change Management & New Initiatives

- Responsible for working in coordination with the Chairperson's Office and the Managing Director's Office on initiatives for ensuring maximum enhancement of the organisational market share.

Strategic Initiatives

- Shouldered the accountability of formulating and presenting Annual Business Plans & Long term strategic growth forecasts for the Power Business
- Analysed Government policies, conducted primary and secondary market research to understand the changing business landscape and decipher its impact on the business.
- Developed Sales & Marketing strategies to deliver the growth committed to the shareholders.
- Was accountable for performing due diligence and ascertaining financial feasibility of power projects proposed by prospective project developers.
- Successfully implemented the brand communication strategy for Power Business Unit across the globe. Interfaced with various stakeholders such as project developers, financial institutions, consultants and registered the organisation as a preferred service provider for over 20 National /International projects

Education

Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta

Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) · (2014 - 2015)

Ashridge Executive Education, Hult International Business School

The Ashridge Leadership Program, Change Management, Cross Cultural Leadership, Strategy and Leadership · (2014 - 2014)

National Power Training Institute

Bachelor's Degree, Power Engineering · (2003 - 2007)

University of Virginia Darden School of Business

Design Thinking for Innovation